

CapSciComm Networking Social: Food Literacy + New Leaders

WEDNESDAY, June 24th, 5:30p
Kupros Crafthouse
1217 21st Street, Sacramento

CapSciComm is an association of science communicators serving California's Capital Region—Sacramento, Davis, and beyond.

Join us for a mixer with the New Leaders Council of Sacramento, and meet young professional leaders shaping policy and advocacy in our region. Seeding our conversations will be the UC Davis Institute for Food and Agricultural Literacy, with plenty of food for thought!
