

CapSciComm Networking Social #SciPolJobs

Thursday, July 20th, 2017 • 5:00-7:30 p.m.

How can scientists participate in public policy?

Scientists are increasingly exploring policy engagement as a skillset or career path, and Sacramento continues to rise on the global policy landscape. This July, we invite anyone working at the intersection of science and policy to meet up for our mixer, co-hosted by the CCST Science & Technology Policy Fellows Alumni Network!
